

#LithuaniaLovesGameDev

For highly skilled talent, creative and inspired people and a sense of community with a positive vibe - there's no better place to be right now than Lithuania.

“ We mainly chose Lithuania due to the business conditions and its convenient location. But we got so much more that we expected – starting with incredibly creative people to work with, and ending with strong support from local institutions and even risk capital funds. ”

Raman Ulasau,
Founder of JetCat Games
